

Monroe Arts Center
Monday Afternoon Youth Art Class

It's back!! The popular Monday Afternoon Youth Art Class continues. If you're looking for something fun, creative, and totally cool for your child to do after school on early release (see time change below) Mondays, then Monroe Arts Center has the perfect solution. In this art program, students in Kindergarten through 5th grade can continue to build their lifelong discovery, exploration, and appreciation of the arts. During each of the six sessions, art instructor Lisa Beach will provide lessons in various aspects of art and art techniques. She will guide students through each project, while instilling creativity and expanding the imaginations of budding artists. Register early - space is limited.

Monday Afternoon Youth Art Class
2019 Winter-Spring Sessions

Week 1 - March 11, 2019 2:30 pm-4:00 pm

Mandela Drawing...Not Just Doodles

From the ancient culture of India, a Mandela represents a circle that illustrates our relationship to the world; the sun and the moon, as well as our relationship to our circle of family and friends. In this class, we will take some time to study the history of Mandela's and then create our own extraordinary Mandela's.

Week 2 - March 18, 2019 2:30 pm-4:00 pm

Up? Down? Sideways? It Must be a Zentangle!

Deceptively easy to learn, you will learn to create beautiful Zentangle images by using dots lines and simple curves. Inspired by the Irish Holiday, we will celebrate St. Patrick's day by creating a funky shamrock Zentangle design.

Week 3 - April 1, 2019 2:30 pm-4:00 pm

It's No Joke! We're Celebrating Vincent Van Gogh

In this class we will celebrate Vincent Van Gogh's 166th Birthday! Unsuccessful during his life-time, Van Gogh painted over 2,000 artworks in just over 10 years and is now celebrated as one of the world's most influential painters. We will study his unique style and create our own works of art in his own distinctive style!

WEEK 4 - April 8, 2019 2:30 pm-4:00 pm

Yarn Is For More Than Knitting

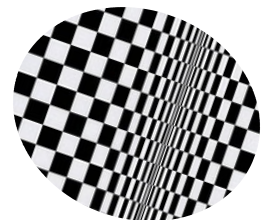

Inspired by the folk art traditions of Huichol people of central Mexico, we will explore the centuries old art of yarn painting. In this class, motivated by what learn we will create our own yarn paintings that will be uniquely yours!

WEEK 5 - April 22, 2019 3:30 pm-5:00 pm

It's All In How You Look At It

We will use Bridget Riley inspired wavy lines, value, and color to create optical illusions in black and white in Op Art style. First we will study the work and life of artist Bridget Riley and then create our own versions of optical pattern paintings

WEEK 6 - April 29, 2019 3:30 pm-5:00 pm

It's Finally Spring, Let's Celebrate!

In this class we will celebrate the arrival of spring with unique, colorful Spring inspired projects. It's spring...anything goes!

Monday, April 29 from 5:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Please join us for an art reception for the students who participated in any of the three 2018-2019 Afternoon Youth Art Classes. Help us celebrate the artists and their artwork.

Please Note: Classes are subject to change based on the needs of the class.

All classes are held at Monroe Arts Center, 2nd Floor Classroom
